

Anyone can become a victim of crime.

Surviving a crime is not something that happens overnight. Being a victim can be a very traumatic experience that may result in physical, emotional, and psychological challenges.

VICTIMS SHOULD NOT FEEL ALONE IN THEIR HEALING. HELP AND SUPPORT IS AVAILABLE.

Thunder Bay Counselling provides services to support victims and survivors of crime in the healing process.

Who is a victim of crime?

Under the Canadian Victims Bill of Rights, a victim of crime is defined as a person who has suffered physical or emotional harm, property damage or economic loss a result of crime.

Types of crime:

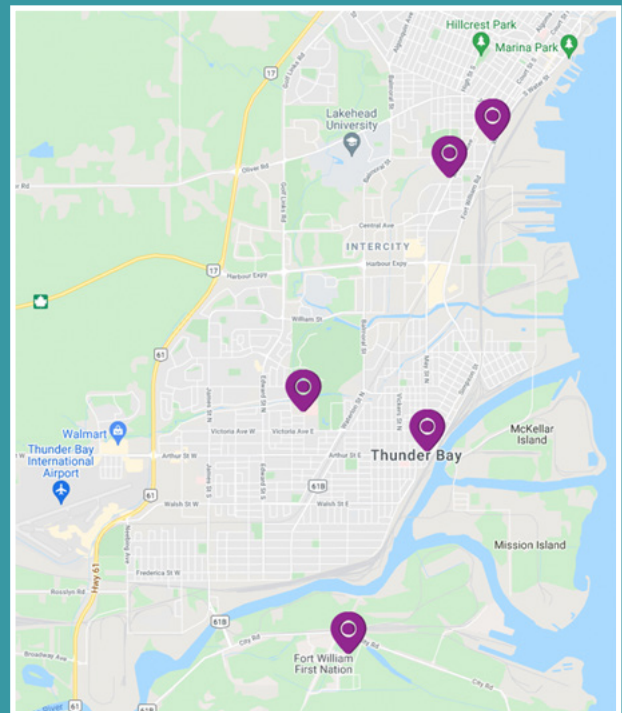

- Assault
- Child Abuse & Neglect
- Domestic Violence
- Elder Abuse & Neglect
- Financial Fraud
- Hate Crimes
- Home Invasion
- Homicide
- Human Trafficking
- Mass Violence
- Sexual Assault
- Stalking

After being a victim of crime, individuals may feel powerless, unsafe, anxious, angry, embarrassed and even ashamed. Thunder Bay Counselling offers the following services and supports:

- Counselling for issues related to sexual abuse and sexual assault;
- Counselling for issues related to intimate partner violence, including physical, sexual, emotional and financial abuse;
- Support and education for children and youth who have been impacted by intimate partner violence;
- Counselling for victims of violent crimes;
- Counselling and outreach services related to human trafficking;
- Support for children and youth who are victims and/or witnesses of crime and who are required to testify in court.

Thunder Bay Counselling works with survivors of human trafficking, sexual abuse and intimate partner violence, among others.

View our interactive online Victim Services Map that highlights supports and services available throughout Thunder Bay and Fort William First Nation.

Department of Justice
Canada

Ministère de la Justice
Canada

If you're ready to talk, we're ready to listen.

Our Victim Services are supported by:

